

Klein Constantia appoints new director

"Klein Constantia is very proud to announce the appointment of René Roger to the Estate's Board of Directors in a non-executive capacity.

French-born René is Professor of Oenology and Beverage Management and has been successfully involved in the educational sector for many years. René holds a master's degree (DESU) from the University of Paris X as well as a Master in Finance, Economy and Marketing from the famous Organisation Internationale de la Vigne et du Vin (OIV), among other qualifications including a certification in Food and Beverage and a Beverage Management from Cornell University.

At the core of René's qualifications is a deep-rooted love of wine and Klein Constantia's famous elixir, Vin de Constance, has held a special appeal for René dating back to his early years as a professional sommelier in some of Europe's most prestigious hotels and restaurants.

Well recognized by his peers, his expert wine and tasting knowledge and experience within the industry promises to be a perfect pairing for Klein Constantia's bright future."
